THE CALL

When Jesus speaks, boats change direction — and so can a church.

THE BIG IDEA

HE STILL WALKS THE SHORE

Before there was a plan for outreach, there was a Person who stopped mid-walk and spoke. Sundays like this are not about hype — they are about hearing that same voice together.

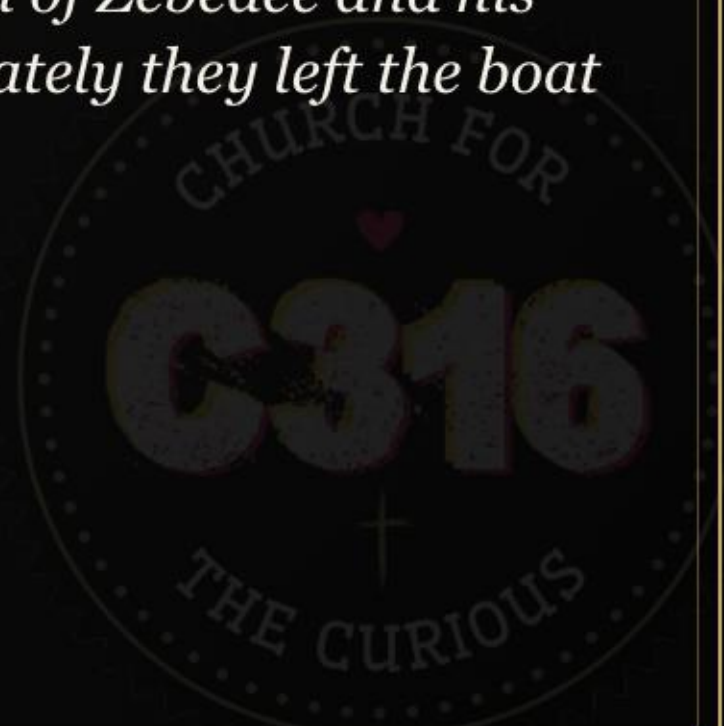

SWIPE →

MATTHEW 4:18–22

18–19 As Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers... “Come, follow me,” Jesus said, “and I will send you out to fish for people.”

20–22 At once they left their nets and followed him. Going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John... and he called them. Immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.

MORE SCRIPTURE · 4 OF 8

MARK 1:17–18

“Come, follow me,” Jesus said, “and I will send you out to fish for people.” At once they left their nets and followed him.

Big idea: The gospel does not begin with our strategy. It begins with His summons.

SWIPE →

Why this still shapes a Sunday gathering

1. A public summons

Jesus calls in the open, not only in private feelings. The church hears together so we can obey together.

2. A clear trade

Nets, boats, even family business get reordered. Discipleship always rearranges what used to be non-negotiable.

What we refuse to settle for

3. Not a hobby faith

Following is not adding Jesus to a full life. It is letting Him become the centre that everything else orbits.

4. Not solo spirituality

Four men leave in the same scene. From day one, fishing for people is a shared life — not a lone hero project.

This week as a church

Listen together

Ask in your household: what is Jesus rearranging in us right now?

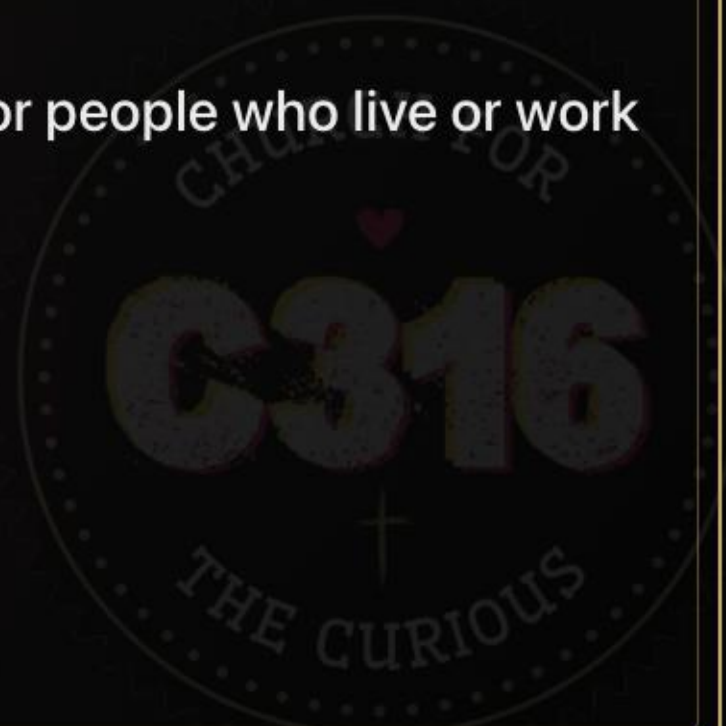

Launch the devotion

Begin Gone Fishing Days 1–2 at home — personal depth under this Sunday's word.

Pray one street

Pick a road near you (or work floor). Pray daily for people who live or work there.

A WORD TO HOLD

“At once they left their nets and followed him.”

MATTHEW 4:20

Speed of obedience is not panic — it is trust. If He is Lord of the shore, He is Lord of our calendars, careers, and courage.

14-DAY DEVOTION · DAYS 1-2

Personal response to the call and the cost of reordered priorities.

THE BIG IDEA

BREAKFAST AFTER BETRAYAL

The risen Jesus does not hold a performance review on the beach. He cooks, questions, and entrusts. That is the culture a healthy church learns from Him.

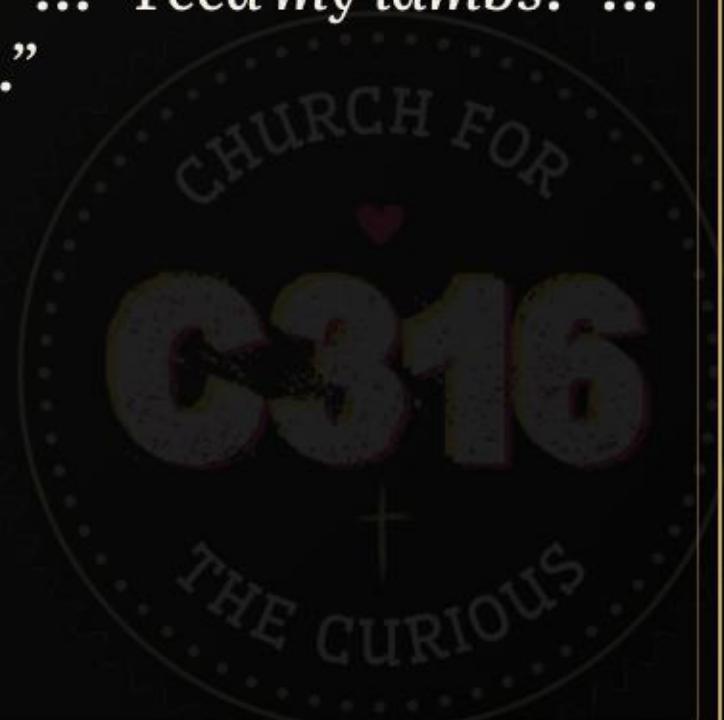

SWIPE →

JOHN 21:9-17

9-12 When they landed, they saw a fire of burning coals there with fish on it, and some bread... Jesus said to them, “Come and have breakfast.”

15-17 ...“Simon son of John, do you love me?” ... “Feed my lambs.” ... “Take care of my sheep.” ... “Feed my sheep.”

MORE SCRIPTURE · 4 OF 8

LUKE 22:31–32

“Simon, Simon, Satan has asked to sift all of you as wheat. But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers.”

Big idea: Grace does not only forgive the past; it reassigns the future.

SWIPE →

What restoration looks like in the text

1. Presence before task

Breakfast first. Jesus rebuilds relationship before He reloads responsibility.

2. Love before leadership

The question is not "Will you never fail again?" but "Do you love Me?"
Ministry without love becomes machinery.

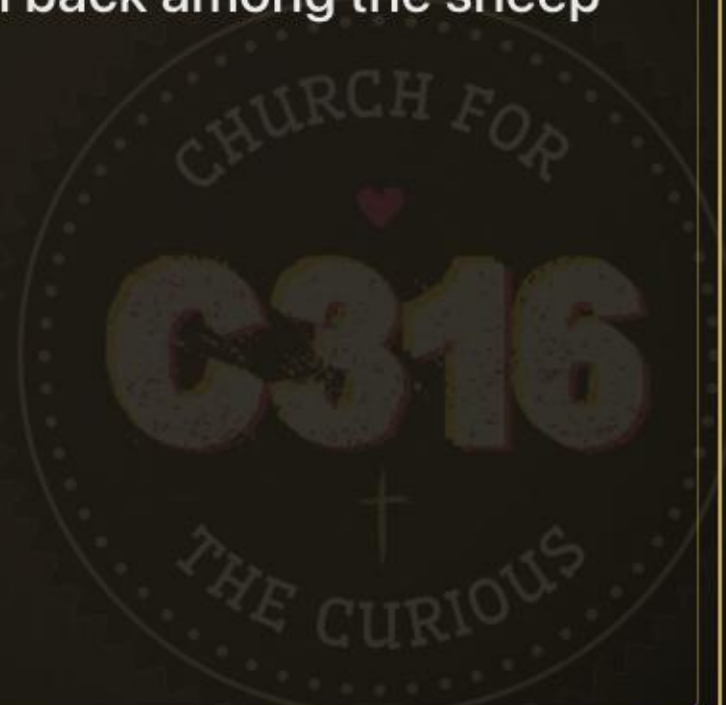

What this means for C316

3. We make room for returners

A gospel church is not shocked by collapse. We expect repentance, and we practice welcome.

4. We re-entrust with care

Jesus does not put Peter on a shelf. He puts him back among the sheep — with a humbler grip.

Confess, don't perform

Where have we been managing image instead of walking in the light?

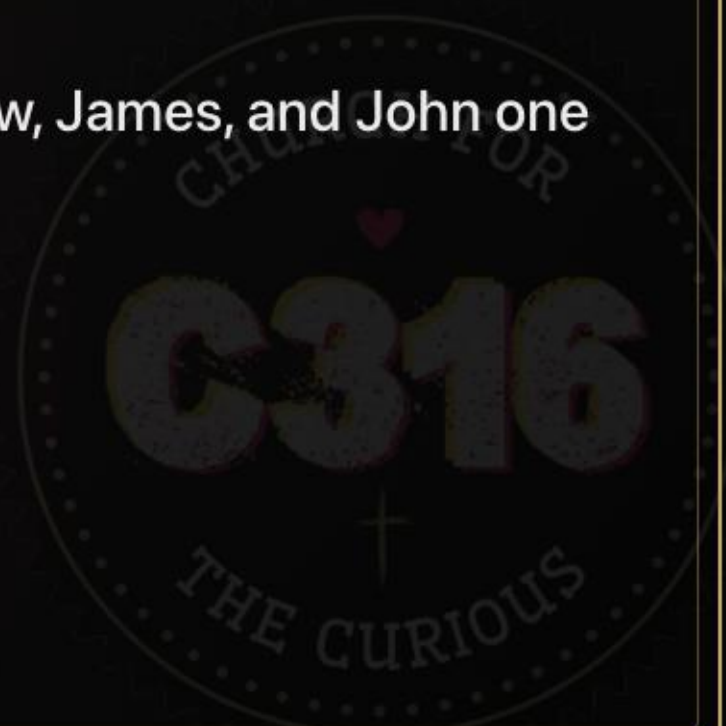

Strengthen someone

Text or sit with a believer who feels finished. Point them to the beach, not the exit.

Devotion days 3–6

At home: watch how Jesus formed Peter, Andrew, James, and John one by one.

A WORD TO HOLD

“And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers.”

LUKE 22:32

Turning back is not the end of the story. In Jesus' hands, it becomes fuel for someone else's courage.

14-DAY DEVOTION · DAYS 3-6

Character studies on the inner four — personal formation under this Sunday's theme of restoration.

THE BIG IDEA

NOT ONE MOULD

Some need evidence. Some need a clean start. Some need their bias interrupted. Some need their spreadsheets surrendered. Jesus knows how to meet each — without diluting truth.

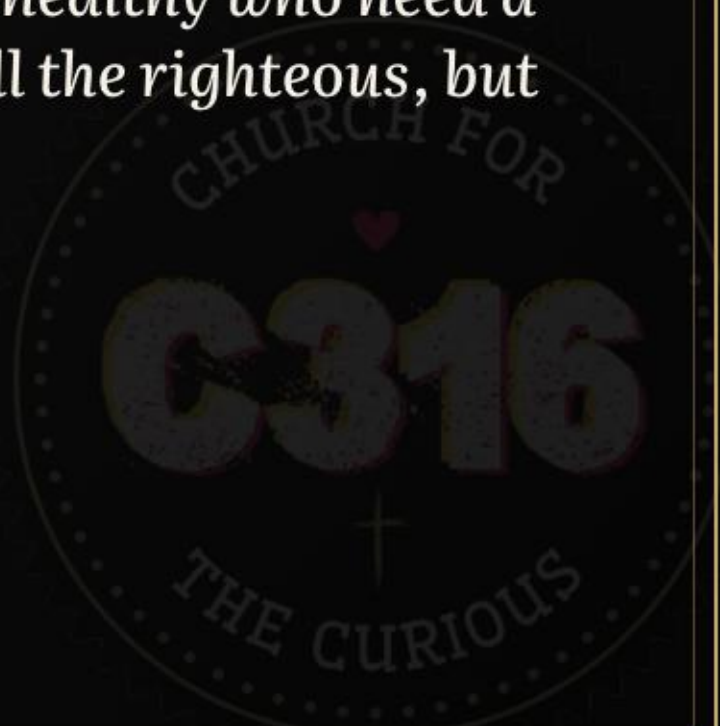

SWIPE →

MATTHEW 9:9–13

9 As Jesus went on from there, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax collector's booth. "Follow me," he told him, and Matthew got up and followed him.

10–13 While Jesus was having dinner at Matthew's house, many tax collectors and sinners came... "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick... I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

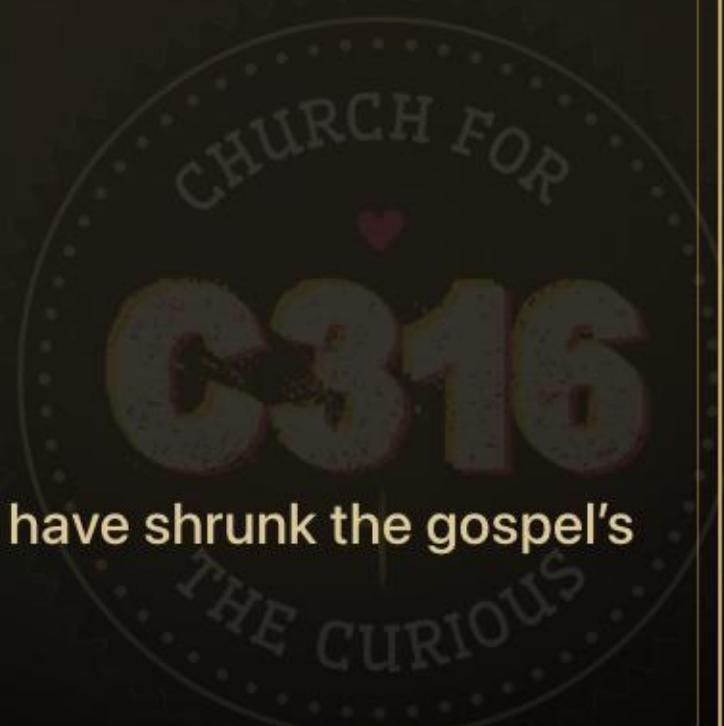

MORE SCRIPTURE · 4 OF 8

JOHN 20:24-29

*...“Unless I see the nail marks in his hands... I will not believe.”
... Thomas said to him, “My Lord and my God!” Then Jesus told him, “Because you have seen me, you have believed; blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed.”*

Big idea: If only one personality thrives here, we have shrunk the gospel's reach.

SWIPE →

Four kinds of welcome in the Gospels

1. The house of the outsider

Matthew's first instinct is a table. Evangelism often smells like food and feels like belonging before it sounds like a sermon.

2. The honesty of the doubter

Thomas is not cancelled for needing scars. Jesus meets him — and still blesses those who trust without the same proof.

Guardrails for a mixed church

3. Truth without snobbery

We do not sneer at questions. We also do not baptise unbelief as wisdom. We walk people toward Jesus.

4. Grace without denial

Past sin is real (Matthew's booth). So is a new future. We neither hide stories nor weaponise them.

This week as a church

Host once

Invite someone who would never expect your table — neighbour, colleague, or the person on the edge of church.

Make space for questions

In group or after service: “What’s hard to believe right now?” Listen well.

Devotion days 7–10

At home: Philip, Nathanael, Matthew, Thomas — slower, personal formation.

A WORD TO HOLD

“It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick.”

MATTHEW 9:12

If you feel too messy for church, you may be exactly who Jesus pulls up a chair for. If you feel sorted, you may need the doctor more than you think.

14-DAY DEVOTION · DAYS 7-10

Individual disciple portraits — questions, prejudice, shame, and honest faith.

THE BIG IDEA

SAME LAKE. NEW WORD.

They knew these waters. Skill had failed. Then His instruction — and the net strained. Our communities are not empty of need. The question is whether we will cast at His word.

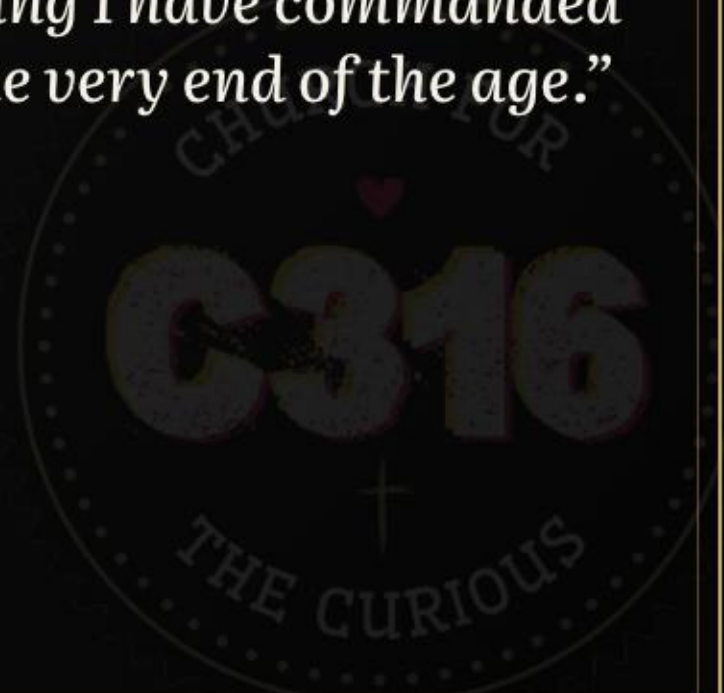

SWIPE →

MATTHEW 28:16-20

17-18 When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. Then Jesus came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.”

19-20 “Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptising them... and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

MORE SCRIPTURE · 4 OF 8

JOHN 21:5–6

He called out to them, “Friends, haven’t you any fish?” “No,” they answered. He said, “Throw your net on the right side of the boat and you will find some.” When they did, they were unable to haul the net in because of the large number of fish.

Big idea: Mission is not a department. It is the family business of everyone Jesus keeps.

SWIPE →

Three checks before we go

1. Authority

We go because all authority is His — not because our confidence is high. Doubt may still sit in the group (v.17); the commission still stands.

2. Integrity

Judas reminds us: you can hold a role and lose a heart. Mission without surrender becomes performance or harm.

How we go as one body

3. Shared load

Making disciples needs teachers, welcomers, pray-ers, servers, givers. If only the visible few 'fish,' the net tears.

4. Local obedience

'All nations' starts with next-door nations — the cultures and postcodes already around Bournebrook and our workplaces.

• 7 OF 8

This week as a church

Take one sent step

Invite, explain the gospel, offer to pray, or serve on an outreach team — pick one and date it.

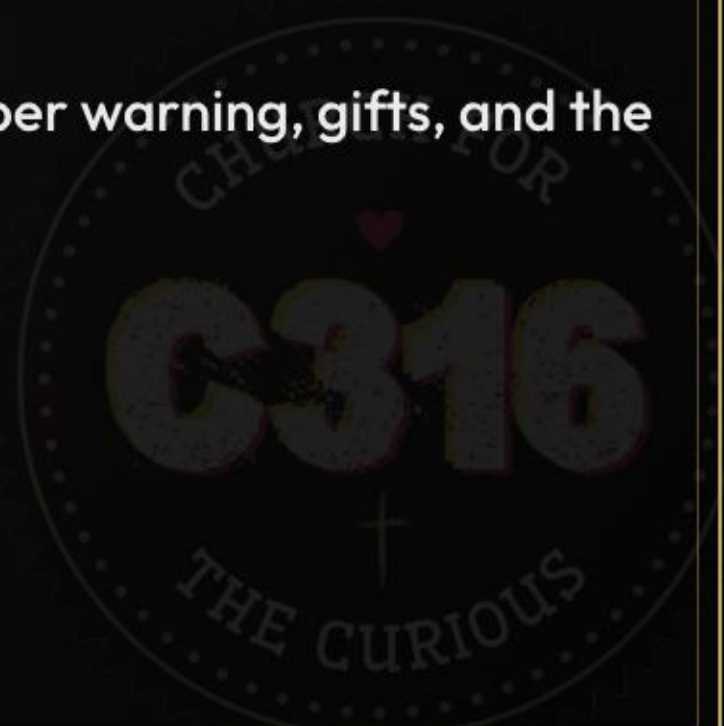

Guard the heart

Ask: am I near Jesus in habit but far in love? Confess quickly.

Finish the series at home: quiet faithfulness, sober warning, gifts, and the open mission.

SWIPE →

A WORD TO HOLD

“And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

MATTHEW 28:20

The One with all authority does not send you alone. Presence is the promise that keeps courage alive when the nets feel empty.

14-DAY DEVOTION · DAYS 11–14

Personal finish line — hidden faithfulness, heart-check, body life, and recommission.
