GONE FISHING • PREACHING PACK

EVERY KIND

The gospel is wide enough for sceptics, strivers, outcasts, and the unsure.

THE BIG IDEA

NOT ONE MOULD

Some need evidence. Some need a clean start. Some need their bias interrupted. Some need their spreadsheets surrendered. Jesus knows how to meet each — without diluting truth.

MATTHEW 9:9–13

9 As Jesus went on from there, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax collector's booth. "Follow me," he told him, and Matthew got up and followed him.

10–13 While Jesus was having dinner at Matthew's house, many tax collectors and sinners came... "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick... I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

JOHN 20:24-29

*...“Unless I see the nail marks in his hands... I will not believe.”
... Thomas said to him, “My Lord and my God!” Then Jesus told him, “Because you have seen me, you have believed; blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed.”*

Big idea: If only one personality thrives here, we have shrunk the gospel's reach.

Four kinds of welcome in the Gospels

1. The house of the outsider

Matthew's first instinct is a table. Evangelism often smells like food and feels like belonging before it sounds like a sermon.

2. The honesty of the doubter

Thomas is not cancelled for needing scars. Jesus meets him — and still blesses those who trust without the same proof.

Guardrails for a mixed church

3. Truth without snobbery

We do not sneer at questions. We also do not baptise unbelief as wisdom. We walk people toward Jesus.

4. Grace without denial

Past sin is real (Matthew's booth). So is a new future. We neither hide stories nor weaponise them.

This week as a church

Host once

Invite someone who would never expect your table — neighbour, colleague, or the person on the edge of church.

Make space for questions

In group or after service: “What’s hard to believe right now?” Listen well.

Devotion days 7–10

At home: Philip, Nathanael, Matthew, Thomas — slower, personal formation.

A WORD TO HOLD

“It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick.”

MATTHEW 9:12

If you feel too messy for church, you may be exactly who Jesus pulls up a chair for. If you feel sorted, you may need the doctor more than you think.

14-DAY DEVOTION · DAYS 7-10

Individual disciple portraits — questions, prejudice, shame, and honest faith.
